

We're looking forward to gathering tonight to begin our discussion on Preparing Kids for a Diverse World, centered around Raising White Kids by Jennifer Harvey. The Zoom link is below the reminders.

A few reminders:

We want you to join us however you can, but if possible, please turn your camera on. These are difficult discussions; visual cues and facial expressions are helpful, even over Zoom. Similarly, it is easier for you to see the other attendees when you use a computer rather than a mobile device.

General info about Zoom:

- Controls only appear when you move your mouse (or touch the screen) within the Zoom window.
- We suggest the Gallery view rather than the Speaker view for this program. In the upper right corner, toggle between seeing only the person who is speaking or a gallery of attendees.
  - Whichever view you are currently using, the button shows the option to switch to the other. For example, when you're in "speaker view" the button at the top of the screen will say "gallery view," because it is offering you the option to switch to that. This can be confusing.
- If your environment has background noise, please mute your microphone when you are not speaking.
